Message from Roger Edwards 2016 Guernsey Skål President

Those lazy hazy days of summer will soon be behind us as we welcome the first signs of autumn - and the redoubtable Guernsey Tennerfest. Our next social event will highlight the latter as we gather at La Grande Mare on Wednesday, October 12, to sample the delights of their festival menu.

This has proved a very popular venue in the past so it would be helpful to know as soon as possible whether or not you're planning to bless us with your company. A menu and booking form are attached to this newsletter - so please let Ken know a.s.a.p. (but no later than October 5) of your intentions.

Our last social event - dinner at the Hotel Jerbourg on September 7 - was well attended as usual and a wonderful time was enjoyed by all as you can see from the photographic evidence.

When it comes to a great welcome, Guernsey Skal member Nobby and his wife Rosita know a thing or two about the subject. Together with their staff at Village East restaurant in St. Peter Port they have been short-listed for the 'Welcome of the Year' award in the 'Pride of Guernsey' promotion featured in the Guernsey Press.

They now go forward to an Oscar-style awards ceremony, with guest hosts Andy and Jo Priaux, on Saturday, October 8. I'm sure we all wish them the best of luck.

In closing, the Belfast National Congress takes place next weekend and we'll be catching up on the latest news from Claudio on his return.

Where in the world?

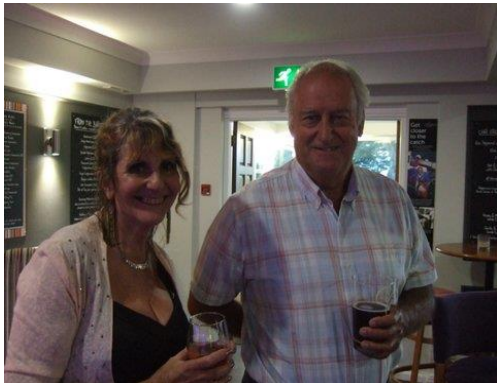

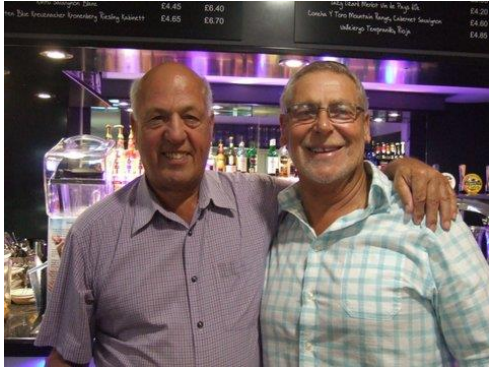

Try your hand at identifying the latest view in our 'Where in the World?' contest. There are no prizes just your kudos for being included in our 'Hall of Fame' . Email your answer to rogerandsusie@hotmail.co.uk

The winners of last month's 'Where in the World' were Mavis and Dave who correctly guessed Monaco, the destination of this year's Skal World Congress.

Our next function is to be held at La Grande Mare Hotel and Country Club. Set in 120 acres of woodland and golf course, it offers stunning views of Guernsey's west coast.

And finally.....

Roger and Susie were thinking of becoming the new hosts of The Great British Bake Off but after making 36 perfectly formed doughnuts - they got tired of the 'hole' thing!!
